REFLECTIONS

Brent Isbell, Preaching Minister
brent@uccabilene.org

Welcome to University Church of Christ! Are you visiting with us? If so, thanks for coming today! We hope to get the opportunity to meet you and help you feel at home this morning. Please do us a simple favor by filling out one of the guest registry cards (located on the seat backs), and then simply drop your card into the offering plate when it comes around later. If you are new to Abilene or looking for a new church family, come back soon. UCC is a great place to call home!

Happy Father's Day to all our fathers and grandfathers! Being called "Daddy" is about as good as it gets. Our broken world needs men who love God and take the role of husband and father seriously. The Bible is honest about the fact that some fathers fail miserably (see Jacob and David). But Scripture also tells us about fathers who do their very best to bless their families. I think about that desperate dad who brought his suffering child to Jesus, begging for help, confessing, "I believe, but help my unbelief!" (Mk. 9:24). Truthfully, this is most of us, I think. There are no perfect fathers. Most of us get up every day and experience a mixed bag of victories and failures, belief and unbelief. We work hard. We ask God to help us. We lean on our wives and friends and community of faith. God, bless each of us as we do our best to honor you in our families! We will talk about this today, and we will take a few minutes during Kids Corner to visit with our littlest ones about their dads and let them give some special Father's Day treats to all our guys. Steven Moore is leading our worship today.

The Church Has Left the Building: Missions and the People of God. This week, we continue our Wednesday night summer series in the Family Room at 7 p.m. All summer, we will be thinking fresh about what it means to be people on a mission for God. This week, Wendell Willis will talk about Missions and Jesus. Also coming this summer: Chris Flanders, Richard Wright, Jim Clark and several other great teachers who will help us think more deeply about the Church being sent by Jesus "into all the world."
