Welcome to University! Tomorrow is Labor Day, so some are probably traveling over this three-day weekend. If you are visiting today, we're very glad you joined us. We hope you experience a warm, friendly University Church welcome! Please do us an easy favor by taking a guest registry card (white cards found on the seat backs). Then simply drop your card into the offering plate when it's passed later in the service. Please come back again soon and learn more about us. You might decide to make this your spiritual home!

Exiled. Today we continue our new Sunday sermon series called Exiled: Living in God's Alien Nation. We are using First Peter as our resource this fall. This week, let's think about holiness. Our culture is increasingly profane. Sometimes you wonder if anything—anything at all—is sacred anymore. Peter's first audience was a minority group surrounded by all sorts of impurity and darkness. Peter reminds them that they have left that empty lifestyle to follow a new and better way. We need to hear this too! Our message this morning is Holy, Holy, Wholly (1:13-25). Our worship leader this morning is Steven Moore.

The UCC office will be closed tomorrow (Monday, Sept. 5) for the Labor Day holiday, reopening Tuesday morning.

The Kingdom and the Powers: Politics and the People of God. This week, we will continue our new Wednesday night series in the Family Room at 7 p.m. Mac Ice is focusing on the fascinating relationship between politics and Restoration history. Come join us.
